drum and trump and song, And raise the war-cry wild and strong, Northmen, come out!

1 Northmen, come out!
Forth unto battle with storm and shout!
Freedom calls you once again,
To flag and fort and tented plain;
Then come with drum and trump and song,
And raise the war-cry wild and strong,
Northmen, come out!

2 Northmen, come out!
Give the pirates a roaring rout!
Out in your strength, and let them know
How Working Men to Work can go.
Out in your might, and let them feel
How Mudsills strike when edged with steel.
Northmen, come out!

3 Northmen, come out!
Come like your grandsires stern and stout!
Though Cotton be of Kingly stock,
Yet royal heads may reach the block:
The Puritan taught it once in pain,
His sons shall teach it once again.
Northmen, come out!

4 Northmen, come out!
Forth unto battle with storm and shout!
He who lives, with victory's blest,
He who dies, gains peaceful rest.
Living or dying, let us be Still vowed to God and liberty!
Northmen, come out!

THE LAND AND THE FLAG.

LANDESVATER.

Slow, and first three lines, first time, as Solo.

1. Comrades plight-ed, Fast u - nit - ed, Firm to death for Freedom stand! See your country torn and bleeding! Hear a mother's sol - emn pleading!

Res - cue, res - cue Freedom's promised land!

THE LAND AND THE FLAG.

Comrades plighted,
Fast united,
Firm to death for Freedom stand !
See your country torn and bleeding !
Hear a mother's solemn pleading !
Rescue Freedom's promised land !

In her keeping
Dust lies sleeping,
Kindled once with noblest fires ;
Hark ! e'en now their slumbers breaking,
Round her flag, indignant waking,
Muster our immortal sires !

Ensign glorious,
Float victorious !
Treason's gloomy hordes dispel !
Cheer the freeman sinking—dying—
Send the pallid foeman flying,
Triumph o'er the might of hell !

Night may shroud us,
Death becloud us,
Through all glooms thy stars shall shine !
Motherland, before thine altar,
Swear we ne'er to faint or falter,
Conquering—falling—still we're thine !

UNION AND LIBERTY.

1st TENOR.

2nd TENOR.

1. Flag of the heroes who left us their glo - ry,

BASS.

Borne through their bat - tle - fields' thun - der and flame,

Bla - zoned in song and il - lu - mined in sto - ry,

Wave o'er us all who in - he - rit their fame!

UNION AND LIBERTY.

Flag of the heroes who left us their glory,
Borne through their battle-fields' thunder and flame,
Blazoned in song, and illumined in story,
Wave o'er us all who inherit their fame !

Light of our firmament, guide of our nation,
Pride of her children, and honored afar,
Let the wide beams of thy full constellation
Scatter each cloud that would darken a star !

Empire unseeptered ! what foe shall assail thee,
Bearing the standard of Liberty's van !
Think not the God of thy fathers shall fail thee,
Striving with men for the birth right of man.

Yet if, by madness and treachery blighted,
Dawns the dark hour when the sword thou must draw,
Then, with the arms of thy millions united,
Smite the bold traitors to Freedom and Law !

Lord of the Universe ! shield us and guide us,
Trusting Thee always, through shadow and sun !
Thou hast united us, who shall divide us ?
Keep us, O keep us, the MANY IN ONE.

O. W. HOLMES.

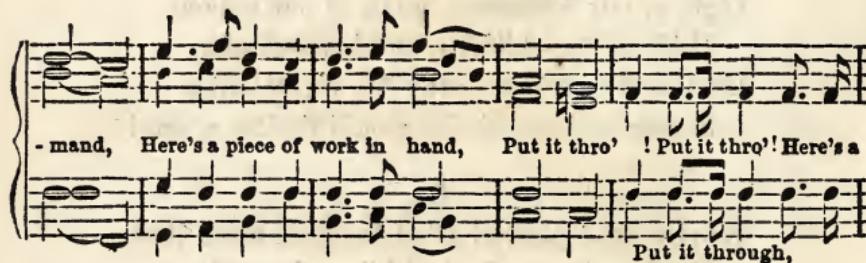

PUT IT THROUGH!

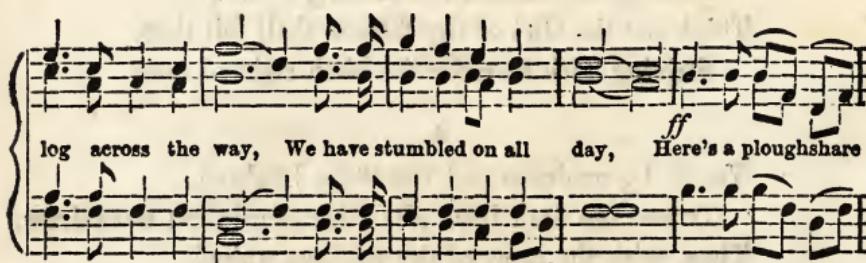

J. K. Paine.

Quick marching time. One step to each

1. Come, Freemen of the Land, of the Land, Come, meet the last deof the Land,

PUT IT THROUGH.

Come, Freemen of the Land,
Come, meet the last demand,
Here's a piece of work in hand,
Put it through !

Here's a log across the way
We have stumbled on all day,
Here's a ploughshare in the clay,
Put it through !

Here's a country that's half free,
And it waits for you and me
To say what its fate shall be,
Put it through !

While one traitor thought remains,
While one spot its banner stains,
One link of all its chains,
Put it through !

Hear our brothers in the field,
Steel your swords as theirs are steeled,
Learn to wield the arms they wield,
Put it through !

Lock the shop and lock the store,
And chalk this upon the door,—
“We've enlisted for the war !”

Put it through !

For the Birthrights yet unsold,
For the History yet untold,
For the Future not unrolled,
Put it through !

Lest our children point with shame
On the fathers' dastard fame,
Who gave up a nation's name,

Put it through !

- ing. For still our an - cient foe, Doth seek to work us woe, His craft and

A MIGHTY FORTRESS IS OUR GOD.

A mighty fortress is our God,
 A bulwark never failing ;
 Our helper he, amid the flood
 Of mortal ills prevailing.
 For still our ancient foe
 Doth seek to work us woe ;
 His craft and power are great,
 And, armed with cruel hate,
 On earth is not his equal.

Did we in our own strength confide,
 Our striving would be losing,—
 Were not the right man on our side,
 The man of God's own choosing.
 Dost ask, who that may be ?
 Christ Jesus, it is he ;
 Lord Sabaoth his name,
 From age to age the same,
 And he must win the battle.

And though this world, with devils filled,
 Should threaten to undo us,
 We will not fear, for God hath willed
 His truth to triumph through us.
 The Prince of Darkness grim,—
 We tremble not for him ;
 His rage we can endure,
 For lo ! his doom is sure,
 One little word shall fell him.

That word above all earthly powers—
 No thanks to them—abideth ;
 The spirit and the gifts are ours,
 Through him who with us sideth.
 Let goods and kindred go,
 This mortal life also ;
 The body they may kill,
 God's truth abideth still,
 His kingdom is for ever.

MARTIN LUTHER, TRANSL. F. H. HEDGE.

THE NIGHT GUARD.
With feeling.

When in the gloomy midnight deep
My solitary watch I keep,
I think on her I left behind,
And ask is she still true and kind.

When I was forced to march away,
How warm a kiss she gave that day ;
With ribbons bright my cap she drest,
And clasped me to her faithful breast.

She loves me still, to me is kind,
Therefore I keep a cheerful mind ;
Through coldest nights my bosom glows,
Whene'er on her my thoughts repose.

Oh if thou weep'st, by grief distressed,
To think of me with danger pressed,
Be calm, God keeps me everywhere,
A faithful soldier is his care !

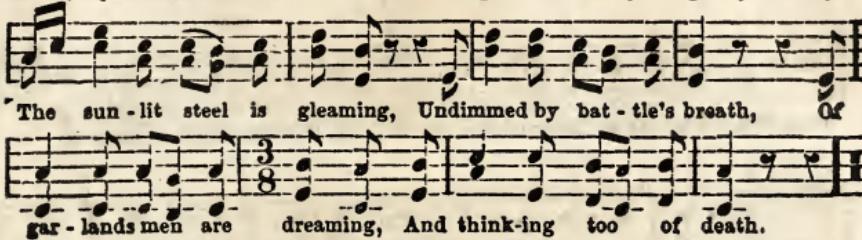

SOLDIER'S MORNING SONG.

With Life.

ERHEBT EUCH VON DER ERDE.

1. { Ye Sleepers, hear the warning, Lift up your drowsy heads!
 { Loud snort the steeds "Good morning!" For - sake your grassy beds!

1 Ye Sleepers, hear the warning,
 Lift up your drowsy heads!
 Loud snort the steeds, "Good morning!"
 Forsake your grassy beds!

The sunlit steel is gleaming,
 Undimmed by battle's breath;
 Of garlands men are dream-ing,
 And thinking, too, of death.

2 Thou gracious God, in kindness
 Look down from thy blue tent!
 We rushed not forth in blindness,
 By thee to battle sent.
 O lift on high before us
 Thy truth's all-conquering sign:
 The flag of Christ floats o'er us,
 The fight, O Lord, is thine!

3 There yet shall come a morning,
 A morning mild and bright:
 All good men bless its dawning,
 And angels hail the sight.
 Soon from her night of sadness
 This suffering land shall wake;
 O break, thou day of gladness!
 Thou day of Freedom break!

4 Then peals from all the towers!
 And peals from every breast!
 And peace from stormy hours,
 And love and joy and rest!
 Then songs of triumph loudly
 Shall swell through all the air,
 And we'll remember proudly,
 We, too, brave blades! were there.

WE'RE AT WAR.

We're at war ! and the word is to battle !
 We're at war ! — and will dare it like men,
 When the roar and the rush and the rattle
 Call the soldier to glory again.
 Go on ! go on ! we're here !
 Go on ! without a fear !

With the foe drawing nigh, and our ranks sweeping by,
 We will conquer or die, boys, hurrah !

We're at war ! — and the men who begun it
 May jeer us as hirelings and slaves !
 Let them fill to the fight — when they've won it ;
 Let them fill — we will soon fill their graves.

CHORUS.

Go on ! go on ! we're here ! &c.

We're at war ! Hip hurrah for the order !
 Fire and charge ! Hip hurrah for the fight !
 We will drive them to death o'er the border ;
 They are breaking to left and to right !

We're at war in a glorious communion,
 With Freedom and Faith on our side :
 Then in God's name, three cheers for the Union !
 He'll remember the soldier who died.

Go on ! go on ! we're here !
 Go on without a fear !
 With the foe drawing nigh, and our ranks sweeping by,
 We will conquer or die, boys, hurrah !

HARVARD-STUDENTS' SONG.

Remember ye the fateful gun that sounded
 To Sumter's walls from Charleston's treacherous shore ?
 Remember ye how hearts indignant bounded,
 When our first dead came back from Baltimore ?
 The banner fell that every breeze had flattered,
 The hum of thrift was hushed with sudden woe ;
 We raised anew the emblems shamed and shattered,
 And turned a front resolved to meet the foe.

Remember ye, how, out of boyhood leaping,
 Our gallant mates stood ready for the fray ?
 As new-fledged eaglets rise, with sudden sweeping,
 And meet unscared the dazzling front of day.
 Our classic toil became inglorious leisure,
 We praised the calm Horatian ode no more ;
 But answered back with song the martial measure,
 That held its throb above the cannon's roar.

Remember ye the pageants dim and solemn,
 Where Love and Grief have borne the funeral pall ?
 The joyless marching of the mustered column,
 With arms reversed to Him who conquers all ?
 Oh ! give them back, thou bloody breast of Treason,
 They were our own, the darlings of our hearts !
 They come benumbed and frosted out of season,
 With whom the summer of our youth departs.

Look back no more ! our time has come, my Brothers !
 In Fate's high roll our names are written too :
 We fill the mournful gaps left bare by others,
 The ranks where Fear has never broken through.
 Look, ancient Walls, upon our stern election !
 Keep, Echoes dear, remembrance of our breath !
 And gentle eyes, and hearts of pure affection,
 Light us resolved to Victory or Death !

THE WHY AND WHEREFORE.

"Where, where, where, and where, and where are you bound, young man ?
Where, where, where, and where, and where are you bound, young man ?"

"I'm off to the war, with the good men and true,
And had'nt you better come along too ?

I speak my mind quite freely,
Now ree'ly."

"Why, why, why, and why, and why to the war, young man ?
Why, why, why, and why, and why to the war, young man ?"

"Did a man ever fight for a holier cause,
Than Freedom and Flag, and Equal Laws ?

Just speak your mind quite freely,
Now ree'ly."

"Which, which, which, and which, and which is the Flag of the Free ?
Which, which, which, and which, and which is the Flag of the Free ?"

"O Washington's Flag, with the stripes and the stars,
Will you give such a name to the thing with the bars ?

I speak my mind quite freely,
Now ree'ly."

"Who, who, who, and who, and who goes with you to the war ?
Who, who, who, and who, and who goes with you to the war ?"

"Ten thousand brave lads, and if they should stay here,
The girls would cry shame, and they'd volunteer !

They speak their mind quite freely,
Now ree'ly."

"When, when, when, and when, and when do you mean to come back ?
When, when, when, and when, and when do you mean to come back ?"

"When Rebellion is crushed, and the Union restored,
And Freedom is safe,—yes, then, please the Lord !

I speak my mind quite freely,
Now ree'ly."

"What, what, what, and what, and what will you gain by that ?
What, what, what, and what, and what will you gain by that ?"

"O I've gained enough, whatever the cost,

If Freedom, the hope of the world, isn't lost.

I speak my mind quite freely,
Now ree'ly."

KÖRNER'S PRAYER.

O SANCTISSIMA.

Rather slow.

1. Hear us, All-power-ful! Hear us, All-pit-i-ful,

God of all strength and sal-va-tion!

KÖRNER'S PRAYER.

(Hör' uns Allmächtiger.)

Hear us, All-powerful !
 Hear us, All-pitiful !
 God of all strength and salvation :
 Father, all praise be thine !
 Thou hast by grace divine
 Wakened to freedom the nation !

Not Hell can us alarm ;
 God, thy almighty arm
 Crushes the tower of delusion !
 Lead us, Lord God of might !
 May we victorious fight !
 Scatter our foes in confusion !

Lead us ! though death's deep gloom,
 Be, by thy will, our doom,
 Praise to thy name still we render !
 Kingdom and majesty
 Are thine eternally,
 Trust we in Thee, our Defender !

SHARPSHOOTER'S SONG.

A man who owned a telescope
 One midnight raised it high,
 And as he took his sight, a star
 Went darting through the sky.
 Some country folks stood round about,
 And 'mongst the rest a clown cried out,
 " Hurrah, hurrah, a splendid shot,
 You brought the fellow down!"

There's many a splendid Southern star
 Who shines with baleful light,
 But when our telescopes go up
 He gleams no more that night.
 Our rifles flash, the bullet flies,
 That planet sets, no more to rise ;
 So it is true that telescopes
 Can bring a foeman down.

Hurrah for Galileo, boys,
 That ancient valiant youth,
 The first that made a telescope,
 And would'nt flinch from truth.
 They said, " you've had a glass too much,
 We've racks and whips in store for such ;"
 " I can't help that," said he, " IT MOVES :"
 And so he brought them down !

Hurrah, hurrah ! great Freedom's truth
 Is moving onward still ;
 And we are Galileo's boys,
 And help it with a will.
 It moves the South, it moves the world,
 And on it goes, by freemen hurled,
 And he who tries to check the truth
 Before us soon goes down !

1. Come soldiers, join a Yan-kee song, And cheer us, as we march a - long, With Yankee voi - ces, full and strong, Join in cho - rus all ;
 Our Yan - kee no - tions here we bring, Our

Come soldiers, join a Yankee song,
 And cheer us, as we march along,
 With Yankee voices,—full and strong,
 Join in chorus all ;
 Our Yankee notions here we bring,
 Our Yankee chorus here we sing,
 So make the Dixie forest ring
 With "OLD FANEUIL HALL!"

OLD FANEUIL HALL!

When first our fathers made us free,
 When old King George first taxed the tea,
 They swore they would not bend the knee,
 But armed them one and all!
 In days like those the chosen spot
 To keep the hissing water hot,
 To pour the tea-leaves in the pot,
 Was OLD FANEUIL HALL!

So when, to steal our tea and toast,
 At Sumter first the rebel host
 Prepared to march along the coast,
 At Jeff Davis' call,
 He stood on Sumter's tattered flag,
 To cheer them with the game of brag,
 And bade them fly his Rebel Rag
 On OLD FANEUIL HALL!

But war's a game that two can play ;
 They waked us up that very day,
 And bade the Yankees come away
 Down South—at Abram's call !
 And so I learned my facings right,
 And so I packed my knapsack tight,
 And then I spent the parting night
 In OLD FANEUIL HALL !

And on that day which draws so nigh,
 When rebel ranks our steel shall try—
 When sounds at last the closing cry
 “ Charge bayonets all ! ”
 The Yankee shout from far and near,
 Which broken ranks in flying hear,
 Shall be a rousing Northern cheer
 From OLD FANEUIL HALL !

The battle-drum's loud rattle is rending the air,
 The troopers all are mounted, their sabres are bare;
 The guns are unlimbered, the bayonets shine,
 Hark! hark! 'tis the trumpet-call! wheel into line!

Ta ra! ta ta ta!

Trum trum, tra ra ra ra!
 Beat drums and blow trumpets!

Hurrah boys, hurrah!

March onward, soldiers, onward, the strife is begun,
 Loud bellowing rolls the boom of the black-throated gun;
 The rifles are cracking, the torn banners toss,
 The sabres are clashing, the bayonets cross!

Ta ra, etc.

Down with the leaguing liars, the traitors to their trust,
 Who trampled the fair charter of Freedom in dust!
 They falter, they waver, they scatter, they run,
 The field is our own, and the battle is won!

Ta ra, etc.

God save our mighty people, and prosper our cause!
 We're fighting for our nation, our land, and our laws!
 Though tyrants may hate us, their threats we defy,
 And drum-beat and trumpet shall peal our reply!

I'm your friend that tells ye so,

Love ye just as fire loves tow !"

Ha ! Ha ! the neutral Bull !

Guess we'd better fix it so,

Ha ! Ha ! a compromise !

Gulp our shame and let'em go,

Ha ! Ha ! a compromise

Let's own up that we're afraid,

That for ruling they were made,

We to lick their boots and trade !

Ha ! Ha ! a compromise !

A COMPROMISE.

Shame on hopes of patching peace,
 Ha! Ha! a compromise!
 With such bloody knaves as these!
 Ha! Ha! etc.

Traitors have no right to hope
 Any peace beneath heaven's cope,
 Till they dangle from a rope!
 Ha! Ha! etc.

Give us back the tears we've shed,
 Ha! Ha! etc.
 Our gallant boys, untimely dead!
 Ha! Ha! etc.
 Give us back the pangs you've cost,
 Give us back our grandeur lost,
 Futures by your treason crossed!
 Ha! Ha! etc.

Give'em empire? give'em bricks!
 Ha! Ha! etc.
 To the tune of Seventy-six!
 Ha! Ha! etc.
 Give'em shot and give'em shell,
 Drive your bayonets homeward well,
 That's the compromise with hell!
 Ha! Ha! etc.

SHALL FREEDOM DROOP AND DIE?

1. Shall Freedom, freedom, droop and die, And we stand idle by;
2. If for her flag, her flag, on high, You bravely fight and die,
3. But should you basely, basely fly, Scared by the battle cry,

When countless millions yet unborn, When countless millions
 Be sure that God on his great roll, Be sure that God on Then down thro' all e - ter - ni - ty, Then down through all e -

yet un - born Will ask the rea - son why ?
 his great roll, Will mark the rea - son why.
 - ter - ni - ty, You'll hear the rea - son why.

Shall Freedom droop and die,
 And we stand idle by,
 When countless millions yet unborn
 Will ask the reason why ?

If for her flag on high
 You bravely fight and die,
 Be sure that God, on his great roll,
 Will mark the reason why.

BUT should you basely fly,
 Scared by the battle cry,
 Then down through all eternity
 You'll hear the reason why.

THE LASS OF THE PAMUNKY.

Your "glens" and "groves" I ne'er admired,
 And O your "broom" and "birks," they pall so!
 Of Burn-sides (all but one) I'm tired,
 And of your "bonny lasses" also.
 The man that sings the "Banks of Doon," —
 And braes, — I hold him but a donkey;
 My heart beats to another tune,
 And that's the Banks of the Pamunky.

For that famed "Lass of Pattie's Mill"
 I would n't give one nickel penny;
 Of "Nannies" we've quite had our fill,
 Of "Peggies" and of "Jessies" many.
 Ditto the "Lass of Ballochmyle,"
 All set so tediously to one key;
 Suppose we try a different style,
 And sing the Lass of the Pamunky!

Then sing no more the "Banks of Cree,"
 Or "Afton's," green and softly rounded,
 But sing the steamer on the P——,
 Where they took me when I was wounded.
 And sing the maiden kind and true,
 Trim, handy, quiet, sweet, and spunky,
 That nursed me, and made no ado,
 When I lay sick on the Pamunky.

Fair hands! but not too nice or coy
 To soothe my pangs with service tender;
 Soft eyes! that watched a wasted boy,
 All loving, as your land's defender! —
 O, I was then a wretched shade,
 But now I'm strong, and growing chunky,
 So Forward! and God bless the maid
 That saved my life on the Pamunky!

THE HIGH-TONED SOUTHERN GENTLEMAN.

[The words in italics are to be spoken, or given in recitative.]

Down in the sunny Southern clime the curious ones may find
 A ripping, tearing gentleman of an uncommon kind, —
 A staggering, swaggering sort of chap, who takes his whiskey straight,
 And frequently condemns his eyes unto an awful fate, —
 A “high-toned Southern gentleman,” one of the present time.

He always wears a full dress coat, pre-Adamite in cut,
 With waistcoat of the broadest style, through which his ruffles jut ;
 Six breast-pins deck his horrid front, and on his fingers shine
 Whole invoices of diamond rings, which would hardly pass muster with the Original Jacobs in Chatham Street

for jewels genuine ;

This “high-toned Southern gentleman,” one of the present time.

He takes to euchre kindly, too, and plays an awful hand,
 Especially when those he tricks his style don’t understand,
 And if he wins, why then he stops to pocket all the stakes,
 But if he loses, then he says to the unfortunate stranger who had chanced to win, “It’s my opinion you are a cursed Abolitionist, and if you don’t leave these parts in an hour, you’ll be hung like a dog !” but no offer to pay his losses makes ;
 This “high-toned Southern gentleman,” one of the present time.

Of course he’s all the time in debt to those who credit give,
 Yet manages upon the best the market yields to live ;
 But if a Northern creditor asks him his bill to heed,
 This honorable gentleman instantly draws his bowie-knife and pistols, dons a blue cockade, and declares that, in consequence of the repeated aggressions of the North, and its gross violations of the Constitution, he feels that it would utterly degrade him to pay any debt whatever, and that in fact he has at last determined to SECEDE !
 This “high-toned Southern gentleman,” one of the present time.*

THE RISING OF THE NORTH.

WHA'LL BE KING BUT CHARLIE.

Con Spirito.

1. Last summer when this migh - ty war In -

 U - nion folks were feel - ing sore, And all Se - cesh was brag - ging,
 Says Abe, " Hol - lo, Sirs ! This goes too slow, Sirs ! Come, call out men a mil - lion ! We'll all go down To Rich - mond town, And fin - ish up Re - bel - lion."

THE RISING OF THE NORTH.

Last summer, when this mighty war
 Ingloriously was lagging,
 And Union folks were feeling sore,
 And all Secesh was bragging,
 Says Abe, "Hollo, Sirs ! This goes too slow, Sirs !
 Come, call out men a million !
 We 'll all go down to Richmond town,
 And finish up rebellion."

Then Judah Baker, up in Maine,
 Says, " You be off, my five boys !
 Go set the Union up again,
 Or don't come back alive, boys !"
 From Maine to Kansas the nation answers,
 From Michigan to Missouri ;
 Impending shame fans high the flame,
 And fills the land with fury.

New Hampshire sends six Sanborn lads,
 With them Brown Brothers seven ;
 The Twomblys brave, the sons and dads,
 Of six and five make 'leven.
 The Granite-Staters, they brook no traitors,
 No more will Minnesota ;
 Connecticut remembers Put,
 And hurries up her quota.

Vermont won't stop to hum and haw,
 Be sure her men turn out well !
 " My six sons and my son-in-law
 I 'll send," says Mrs. Boutwell.
 New York, Ohio a glorious trio
 Make up with Pennsylvania ;
 " Me, Ma, and I " with the rest.

THE RISING OF THE NORTH.

Five Kays, five Cookes, five Hodgdons rush
 To speak for Massachusetts ;
 For her the grandsires shall not blush,
 Like them she 's still a few sets.

" Come out ! " says Rhody, " come everybody ! "
 She 's little, but she 's plucky ;
 The Jersey Blues no time will lose,
 Nor lingers old Kentucky.

Dame Upright, out in Illinois, —
 The Suckers, what can daunt them ! —
 Says, " Abe, here 's my eight oldest boys ;
 I 've three more when you want them."
 Half Indiana flocks to the banner,
 And Delaware is not tardy ;
 And Iowa sends to the fray
 Her trappers keen and hardy.

Wisconsin sure is pretty far ;
 She 's with the earliest comers !
 To make things perpendicular
 She sends her seven Plummers.
 And wild Nebraska if you should ask her
 To stay at home, would scorn ye ;
 And all the gold e'er mined or told
 Can't hold back Californy.

8

'T was thus Columbia's sons arose,
 When Abram sounded danger ;
 And thus they aye will meet her foes,
 The TRAITOR or the STRANGER !
 So true and steady, they 're always ready
 To go where she will lead 'em ;
 Let her but call, and one and all,
 They 'll give their lives for Freedom *

* A few of many families who have given a large number of soldiers to the Union army are commemorated in the above lines. Almost any reader will remember

CAVALRY SONG.

JOHN K. PAIN.

1. Weaponed well to war we ride, With sa - bres ringing by our side, The warning knell of death to all Who hold the ho - liest cause in thrall; The sa - cred Right, which grows to Might, The day which dawns in blood - red light.

 Weaponed well to war we ride,
 With sabres ringing by our side,—
 The warning knell of death to all
 Who hold the holiest cause in thrall;
 The sacred Right which grows to Might,
 The day which dawns in blood-red light.

 Weaponed well to war we ride,
 To conquer, tide what may betide;
 For never yet beneath the sun
 Was battle by the devil won:
 For what to thee defeat may be,
 Time makes a glorious victory.

 Weaponed well to war we ride;
 Who braves the battle wins the bride;
 Who dies the death for truth shall be Alive in love eternally:
 Though dead he lies, soft starry eyes
 Smile hope to him from purple skies.

C. G. LEAND.

I'LL BE A SERGEANT.

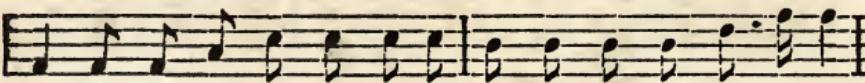

TRIO.

1. I'll be a Sergeant, An or-der-ly Sergeant,

I'll be a Sergeant, on that just bet your life;

I'll make the boys so sick of drilling on the double quick,

They'll be glad to turn in, To dream of a wife.

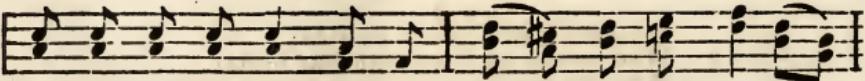

CHORUS. Slower.

For the girls they must love and a-dore us, Who fight for the coun-try that bore us, And hap-py shall we be, if they kiss you and me, When we come march-ing home.

March-ing

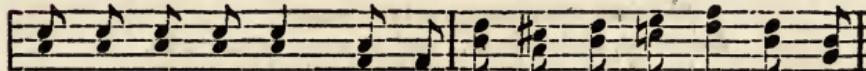

home, marching home, marching home,

Marching

home to the roll of the drum, When peace shall call us back from the camp and biv - ou - ac, And the drum taps "marching home."

I 'LL BE A SERGEANT.

I'll be a Sergeant, an orderly Sergeant,
 I'll be a Sergeant, on that just bet your life ;
 I'll make the boys so sick
 Of drilling at the double quick,
 They'll be glad to turn in, to dream of a wife.
 For the girls, they must love and adore us,
 Who fight for the country that bore us,
 And happy shall we be
 If they kiss you and me,
 When we come marching home !
 Marching home, marching home, marching home,
 Marching home to the roll of the drum,
 When peace shall call us back
 From the camp and bivouac,
 When the drum taps, " Marching home ! "

She sha'n't be Cap'n, that must not happen,
 She sha'n't be Cap'n, but play the second fife ;
 We can bear the colors best,
 She shall wear them on her breast,
 Salute us, and " dress," and in short be our wife.
 For the girls, they must love and adore us, etc.

Should I be Col'nel, gazetted in the Journal,
 O, should I be Col'nel, to lead in the strife,
 For her sake, so proud I'd be,
 And let ev'ry rebel see,
 How a man can fight for his flag and a wife !
 For, dear girls ! we soldiers adore you ;
 Make us brave through your love, we implore you !
 Then happy shall we be
 To bend the suppliant knee,
 When we come marching home.
 Marching home, marching home, marching home,
 Marching home to the roll of the drum.
 Then, freed from war's alarms,
 To you we'll yield our arms,
 When the drum taps, " Marching Home ! "

THE VOW.

ES SEY MEIN HERZ.

1. Our life's last drop we vow to thee, We'll burst thy chains asunder! Dear Motherland, we'll set thee free From treason, shame and plunder! From all thy soil, hill, vale, and shore, Oppression's hordes forevermore We'll drive with fire and thunder.

 Our life's last drop we vow to thee,
 We'll burst thy chains asunder!
 Dear Motherland, we'll set thee free
 From treason, shame, and plunder!
 From all thy soil,—hill, vale, and shore,—
 Oppression's hordes forevermore
 We'll drive with fire and thunder.

 The die is cast—we will not quail,
 Whatever fate hangs o'er us;
 For TRUTH IS GREAT, AND SHALL PREVAIL,
 And Freedom goes before us.
 Where brothers lie, we too may lie,
 Yet shall our souls ascending cry,
 “We've saved the land that bore us!”

FOR A' THAT AND A' THAT.

Who 's he that dares insult our cause
 With doubts, and fears, and a' that ?
 We 'll stand for Country, Home, and Laws,
 Despite his jeers, and a' that !
 For a' that, and a' that,
 Though cannons roar, and a' that,
 We 'll fight our fathers' battles o'er
 Like freemen's sons, for a' that !

The stars that rose in murky sky, —
 Yet struggled through, for a' that, —
 Shall take again their place on high
 In field of blue, for a' that !
 For a' that, and a' that,
 Through treason, wars, and a' that,
 They still shall be the polar stars
 And never set, for a' that !

And not for us alone their light ;
 They 'll shine for more than a' that ;
 For all who wrestle for the Right,
 In bondage sore and a' that !
 For a' that, and a' that,
 For wrongs, and woes, and a' that ;
 And earth shall shout amidst her throes
 For man's new-birth, and a' that !

Then, comrades, form th' electric chain
 With heart and hand, and a' that ;
 The spark we strike shall pass amain
 Through ev'ry land, for a' that.
 For a' that, and a' that,
 With flag unfurled, and a' that,
 The standard-bearers of the world,
 We 'll free mankind for a' that !

pipe I thought it— Not much for show;
in it perished, Short time a - go !

2 Only two and nine-pence bought it
Long time ago !

Cavendish and Lynchburg taught it
Browner to grow ;
Round the camp-fires sitting, joking,
Stretched in a row,
Comrades brave this pipe were smoking,
Short time ago !

3 Oh I hoped 'twas mine forever,
Short time ago !

Can I now forget it ? — Never !
No, lost one, no !
To its thief my blessing's given
With it he may go !
Oh my Briar-pipe was stolen,
Short time ago !

4 If Secesh this pipe have taken,—
Some time ago,

When they stole our corn and bacon,—
Skedaddling slow,
Not a bitter thought 'twill waken,
By Jingo, no !
'Twill be found when Richmond's taken—
Shortly you know.

MY LOVE SHE'S BUT A LASSIE YET.

O we're not tired of fight-ing yet! We're

We'll be com-ing, With the ball and bay-o-net!

CHORUS.

 We 're not the boys to frighten yet!
 While drums are drumming we 'll be coming,
 With the ball and bayonet!
 For we can hit while they can pound,

 Secesh is bound to lick the ground,
 And we 'll be in their pantry yet!

O we 're not tired of tramping yet,—
 Of soldier life or camping yet;
 And rough or level, man or devil,
 We are game for stamping yet.
 We 've lived through weather wet and dry,
 Through hail and fire without a cry,
 We would n't freeze and could n't fry,
 And hav'n't got through our ramping yet!

We hav'n't broke up the party yet,
 We 're rough, and tough, and hearty yet;
 Who talks of going pays what 's owing,
 And there 's a bill will smart ye yet!
 So bang the doors, and lock 'em tight!
 Secesh, you 've got to make it right!
 We 'll have a little dance to-night;
 You can't begin to travel yet!

O we 're not tired of fighting yet,
 Nor ripe for disuniting yet!
 Before they do it, or get thro' it,
 There 'll be soime savage biting yet!
 Then rip hurrah for Uncle Sam!
 And down with all secesh and sham!
 From Davis to Vallandigham,
 They all shall rue their treason yet!

SONGS FOR THE TIMES.

1. A NEW PLANTATION SONG.
2. NEGRO BOATMEN'S SONG.
3. SONG OF THE SNEAK.
4. SOLDIER'S OATH.

"I am for the government of my fathers and the friends of that government, and I am against the enemies of that government, and all their friends both North and South." — GEN. ROUSSEAU of Kentucky.

"Separation on either side, with peace in the future, is impossible, and we are compelled by self-interest, by every principle of honor, and every impulse of manhood, to bring this unholy contest to a successful termination. . . . In this dark hour of our country's trial, there is but one road to success and peace, and that is, to be as firmly united for our government as the rebels are against it." — GEN. HOVEY of Indiana.

"Thet's wut we want,— we want to know,
The folks on our side hez the bravery
To B'LIEVE EZ HARD, come weal, come woe,
IN FREEDOM EZ JEFF DOOS IN SLAVERY."

HOSEA BIGLOW.

"Absolutely assured of these things, I am amazed that any one could think of 'peace on any terms.' He who entertains the sentiment is fit only to be a slave; he who utters it at this time is, moreover, a traitor to his country, who deserves the scorn and contempt of all honorable men."

GEN. ROSECRANS.

"Ther's critters yit thet talk an' act
Fer wut they call Conciliation;
They'd hand a buff'lo-drove a tract
When they wuz madder than all Bashan.
Conciliate? it jest means be kicked,
No metter how they phrase an' tone it;
It means that we're to sit down licked,
That we're poor shotes,— an' glad to own it."

 CHOR. On de ole plantation!

Fotch de missus' pi-an-o,
O dis ole plantation!
 Play de hymn ob Jump Jim Crow
Pon dis solemn 'casion!
 Now den, Julius, heel and toe,
 Golly! boys, but dis ain't slow!
 Brack folks' turn has come — dat 's so!
On dis ole plantation!

Here 's de rag with seben stars,
O dis ole plantation!
 Massa toted to de wars,
To scare de Yankee nation.
 Now, boys, three times three Yah-Yahs
 For de rebel spots and bars,
 Nebermore to wabe — NO SARS!
On dis ole plantation!

Massa, though he 's run away,
From de ole plantation,
 We don't wish to cotch and flay,
But on consid'ration,
 We all forgib him, as we pray
 His Country and his Maker may,
 And 'mancipate him here, dis day,
On de ole plantation!

Now den Lucy, Dinah, June,
O dis ole plantation!
 Ef your wuff a picayune,
Dance like all creation!
 Play up, Pomp, you yaller coon,
 Don't ask what, you picaroon!
 YANKEE DOODLE, dat 's de tune
For Uncle Sam's plantation!

NEGRO BOATMEN'S SONG.

Moderato.

CHORUS.

NEGRO BOATMEN'S SONG.

O praise an' tanks! De Lord he come
 To set de people free;
 An' massa tink it day ob doom,
 An' we ob jubilee.

De Lord dat heap de Red Sea waves
 He jus'as 'trong as den;
 He say de word, — we las' night slaves,
 To-day de Lord's freemen!

CHORUS. De yam will grow, de cotton blow,
 We 'll hab de rice an' corn;
 O nebber you fear, if nebber you hear
 De driver blow his horn!

Ole massa on he trabbels gone,
 He leab the land behind;
 De Lord's breff blow him furder on,
 Like corn-shuck in de wind.
 We own de hoe, we own de plough,
 We own de hands dat hold,
 We sell de pig, we sell de cow,
 But nebber chile be sold!
 De yam, etc.

We pray de Lord, he gib us signs
 Dat some day we be free;
 De Norf-wind tell it to de pines,
 De wild-duck to de sea.
 We tink it when de church-bell ring,
 We dream it in de dream,
 De rice-bird mean it when he sing,
 De eagle when he scream!
 De yam, etc.

We know de promise nebber fail,
 An' nebber lie de Word;
 So, like de 'postles in de jail,
 We waited for de Lord.
 An' now he open ebery door,
 An' trow away de key,
 He tink we lub him so before,
 We lub him better free!
 De yam, etc.

SONG OF THE SNEAK.

DRESDEN MARCH.

Lively.

I saw the foe ad - van - cing, Says
 I, "Boys," says I, "This is ra - ther ug - ly danc - ing. The gen - eral makes us try, Where the bay - o - nets are glan-cing," Says I, "boys," says I.

I saw the foe advancing,
 Says I, "Boys," says I,
 "This is rather ugly dancing,
 The general makes us try,
 Where the bayonets are glancing,"
 Says I, "boys," says I.

When the bullets got to dropping,
 Says I, "Boys," says I,
 "I wish there were some stopping
 These blue beetles as they fly,
 Which set a fellow hopping,"
 Says I, "boys," says I.

SONG OF THE SNEAK.

And I'd scarcely pulled a trigger,
 Says I, "Boys," says I,
 "I ain't got a mite of vigor," —
 So I skulked and tried to fly,
 But was booted by a nigger,
 And back I had to shy.

Then the Confed's came before us,
 Says I, "Boys," says I,
 "I guess they 're goin' to floor us,
 Or knock us high and dry";
 When they all sang out in chorus, —
 "Yield or die! yield or die!"

"If you yield, we will parole you":
 Then says I, "Boys," says I,
 "I have no wish to control you;
 But, unless you want to die,
 The best way to console you,
 Is to go parole," says I.

"When we won't have no more fighting,"
 Says I, "Boys," says I,
 "Yet, in our pay delighting,
 We can loaf at ease all day,
 And keep clear of guns affrighting
 All a feller's nerves," says I.

Now I blow and bluster bolder,
 And at home, "Boys," says I,
 "I used to be a soldier,
 But was too brave to fly,
 And I'm, therefore, a parol-der,
 Of the noblest kind," says I.

SOLDIER'S OATH.

Lift on high both heart and hand!
 By the broad blue heaven high o'er us,
 By the sacred cause before us,
 Swear with Freedom's flag to stand!
 By your forefathers in glory,
 Names that consecrate the air,
 By your Freedom's kindling story,
 By the God of Freedom, swear!

2.

Lift on high both heart and hand!
 Swear, that earth and heaven may hear it,
 And the brazen traitor fear it,—
 Swear the oath to save your land!
 Glorious ensign, float before us,
 Proudly lead us to the field!
 While thy folds are fluttering o'er us,
 None shall basely flee or yield.

3.

Lift on high both heart and hand!
 Swell, with Freedom's pure air filling,
 Noble flag! each bosom thrilling
 Of our chosen patriot band.
 Sign of honor! never paling,
 Save in death, our cheeks thou 'lt see,—
 Thousand pangs with transport hailing,
 Ere we turn our backs on thee!

4.

Lift on high both heart and hand!
 Hail, this glorious consecration!
 Hail, regenerated nation!
 Hail, all hail! thou new-born land!
 Sons of Freedom, all assemble,
 Solemn vows and praise to pay!
 Falsehood, fraud, and treason, tremble!
 Courage, children of the day!

5.

Lift on high both heart and hand!
 To the King of Nations rear it,
 Let the great Heart-Searcher hear it,
 As we here before him stand,
 Praying him to keep us holy,
 Pure in thought and word and deed,—
 Him whose hand uplifts the lowly,
 Makes the just alone succeed!
